

SHANNON GILLAN

Shannon Gillan is a young enthusiastic second year director of the Carp Agricultural Society (CAS). Growing up in the community she has spent many years supporting and volunteering with the CAS. She has taken every assignment with stride and always shows pride in accomplishment with a knack for improvements. Whenever there is work to be done or a cause to support Shannon is always one of the first faces you see. She will drop anything for a call to action and will be a great asset to the CAS through her 13 year commitment.

Shannon is in her second year as a director of CAS however has spent the previous 3 years as an associate director to CAS. She has attended CAFE in Banff and OAAS convention the past 3 years at her own expense in an effort to increase her knowledge and network within the industry. She is a young small business owner within our community who has spent many years volunteering around our fair. Her mother was a previous homecraft director and her grandfather a previous past president. Her family continues to support our organization and she is truly a success story for the character and strength that the fair industry develops. 🍁
